Appeals of UTS decision

Bay of Plenty Energy/Todd Energy, Contact Energy and Genesis Power Limited have filed appeals against the Authority's undesirable trading situation (UTS) decision relating to events of 26 March 2011. The decision, nevertheless, remains in effect pending the outcome of the appeals and the Pricing Manager and Clearing Manager are continuing to take steps to implement it.

The Authority expects the Pricing Manager will be in a position to publish revised interim prices for 26 March 2011 by Friday 22 July.

The appeals are available at:

Authority publishes Code amendment register

The Authority has published its Code amendment register online. This register lists proposals for Code amendments put forward by industry participants as well as those generated through Authority work in consultation with industry.

Interested parties are encouraged to propose amendments to the Code. The consultation charter provides guidance on preparing proposals, which can be made using the online Code amendment proposal form.

The consultation charter also sets out the process the Authority follows for processing proposals. An acknowledgement is sent within a week and an initial decision on how the proposal will be categorised in the Authority's workplan is advised within 3 months of receipt.

Registered proposals are regularly reviewed as part of the Authority's business planning process, with prioritised proposals moving from the future/pending list to the work programme.
