

Electricity Governance Regulations (Exemption No. 51 (Retailers and Registry)) Exemption Notice 2008

Pursuant to Regulation 194(2) of the Electricity Governance Regulations 2003, the Electricity Commission gives the following notice.

Notice

1. Title and commencement—(1) This notice is the Electricity Governance Regulations (Exemption No. 51 (Retailers and Registry)) Exemption Notice 2008.

(2) This notice comes into force on 20 March 2008.

2. Exemption—All retailers and the registry, as those terms are defined in Part A of the Electricity Governance Rules 2003 (“Rules”), are exempted from compliance with the following rules contained in the Rules:

- (a) Rule 12 of Part E;
- (b) Rule 3.1 of Schedule E2 of Part E; and
- (c) Schedule E3 of Part E.

3. Term—This exemption will expire on 14 April 2008.

4. Reason for granting the exemption—The reason for granting this exemption is:

- In order to comply with the migration plan and populate the new systems in preparation for the new registry and reconciliation manager systems, retailers and the registry cannot comply with the requirements of these rules.

Dated at Wellington this 7th day of March 2008.

For and on behalf of the Electricity Commission:

DAVID CAYGILL, Chair.
