

Tony,

Good to catch up yesterday.

Below is a suggested topic that I think would be relevant for MDAG to consider.

"In the short to medium term there is an expected drop in demand. The government wishes to continue the uptake of renewables to reduce emissions but also to help stimulate the economy. What market structures are required to support a continued uptake of renewables that also supports a reduction in cost for consumers."

Best regards
ECOTRICITY
Al Yates