Summary of submissions on foundation documents

The Authority has published a summary of submissions, and the Authority's responses to the submissions, on the Authority's three foundation documents:

- Interpretation of the Authority's statutory objective
- Consultation Charter
- Charter about Advisory Groups

The three foundation documents make key strategic statements as to how the Authority will approach its decision making.

The summary of submissions on the Interpretation of the Authority's statutory objective and the Authority's responses are available at:
